- St. Anne Parish 7th Annual Trivia Night is just around the corner...Saturday, 2/8 at 6:30pm! This is an adults-only, very fun event! Many school families have participated in the past, so it is a great way to mingle outside of school! Click here for the registration form and full details: https://stannebarrington.org/wp-content/uploads/2019/12/Registration-Form.2020_Trivia_Night.AW_v1.pdf. Limited # of tables available, so don't delay...sign up today!
- Screenagers has been rescheduled for Tuesday, February 18! As a reminder, St. Anne purchased the rights to show "Screenagers" an award-winning film that probes into the vulnerable corners of family life and depicts messy struggles over social media, video games and academics. The film offers solutions on how we can help our kids navigate the digital world. (runtime about 67-minutes). Click here to view the trailer: <https://www.screenagersmovie.com>. The video will be shown during school on 2/18 to grades 6-8. A second "after school special" showing will also be made available that same afternoon for Middle School-aged kids as well as parents. More details to come, but mark your calendars and spread the word as we are opening this up to the Parish and Barrington community.
- THANK YOU to all who have volunteered their time so far this school year! We could not do it without your help! There are many volunteer opportunities still to come in 2020. Events coming up that you may want to help with are: Catholic Schools week (1/26-1/31); Father/daughter dance (2/21); Mother/son event (2/22).
